The Theatre of Performing Arts has an enormous appreciation for the young artists in our area. It is the love of children and the love of arts that has sustained this organization. We stand as a beacon of light in our communities for the young artists who search for a voice, a place, and a way of expressing an intrinsic desire to be unique. As we chart the journey of jazz music in America, let us applaud these young artists, dancers, singers and musicians as they guide us through the wonderful world of art.
